Let's celebrate our people on Special Persons Day!

On Friday, November 17, 2023, St. Paul Lutheran School will celebrate Special Person's Day. We would love for you to join us this day as we celebrate the special people in our students lives.

- The day will begin with Chapel at 8:30am in the sanctuary
- Activities in the classroom
- Fellowship & refreshments in the gym
- Craft in the gym

This is a full day of school for the students. The Special Person Day events will end at noon, the students will say goodbye and return to their classrooms.

If you would like to volunteer and be "special someone" for a child without one, we would be grateful your support. If you would like to visit with our school family on this day, we welcome you.

If are unable to attend, please ask God to bless this event.
