Open House Sign

Please take a newly designed sign for this year’s open house on Sunday, March 10.

If you take a sign, please place the sign in your yard and take a photo of the sign with you or your child. Please post this photo on your own personal social media pages and the Friends of St. Paul Facebook page.

Your child or children will receive a free dress day on Monday, March 11 as a thank you for sharing your connection to St. Paul.

Introducing.... Mrs. Julie Hansen

St. Paul Lutheran leadership is thrilled to announce Mrs. Julie Hansen, as our new administrative assistant and admissions director. Mrs. Hansen is currently the Parent Teacher League treasurer, an active volunteer in the school, and her two sons are students at St. Paul. She brings over ten years of experience as an office manager in the medical field. Additionally, Mrs. Hansen and her husband, Brett, are congregation members. Mrs. Hansen will begin her new role on Friday, March 1.

National Lutheran Schools Week

March 4 – 8

“Our Hope for Years to Come” – Social Studies Theme

- Dress Days
  - Monday, March 4 – Green “Abounding in Hope” school theme shirt
  - Tuesday, March 5 – Dress for Success – Wear dress or fancy clothes
  - Wednesday, March 6 – Dress for Vacation
  - Thursday, March 7 – Dress for Working from Home
  - Friday, March 8 – My Own Best Self – Wear your favorite outfit
  - All clothing choices must fit school dress down day guidelines.
- Our theme for the week is “Our Hope for Years to Come” realizing that St. Paul has been in Royal Oak for 150 years, and we are continuing to look for what God has in store for each of us in the future.
- Our hope is that the children would start imagining what they might want to do as they grow up and how they might serve God and their neighbors. We will be encouraging students to begin imagining potential careers for their future.
- Our Bible verse for the week is Isaiah 6:8, particularly the words, “Here am I, send me.”
- We want to look to the future, learn, and have fun. With that goal in mind, we have many special activities planned: all school devotions, special guest speakers, and special daily snacks.
- Needed
  - Canopies and white strings of lights for temporary use for activities during this week.
  - Volunteers to help decorate the building on March 3 beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Easter Break Extension

St. Paul is extending Easter break for one more day. There will be no school on Monday, April 8. God's creative power will be on display in North America during a total solar eclipse during the afternoon of Monday, April 8. The path of totality, when the Moon completely covers the Sun, will pass through Ohio in the middle of the afternoon on April 8. I encourage you to consider taking your family into the path of totality to experience the wonder of God's creative power. If you choose to view any part of the solar eclipse whether in Michigan or somewhere else, please make sure to wear special glasses designed to look at the Sun.
